recommended to the Planning Commission for earmarking separate funds for the purpose. The State Government has been advised to take vigorous follow up action.

Government is seriously engaged in taking various steps to tackle the problem. The Central Government has set up a Coordination Centre, headed by the Union Home Secretary with Chief Secretaries and Directors General of Police of the affected States as its members, to review the steps taken by the States to check the left-wing extremism activities, monitor the plan of action in respect of each State and to make recommendations, both on development and security aspects of the problem. The Co-ordination Centre has had several meetings in this regard and constantly reviewing the position. Government has also implemented a Scheme for reimbursement of the Security Related Expenditure incurred by the States in tackling the left wing extremist activities, covering the period from 1.4.1996 to 31.3.2001. The expenditure incurred by the States is reimbursed on 50:50 basis.
